Columbus Consolidated Government to Host 19th Annual Hometown Connection

[Columbus, Georgia] – The Columbus Consolidated Government will host the 19th Annual Hometown Connection Legislative Agenda Meeting on Wednesday, October 28, 2026, from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. in the Sycamore Room at the Columbus Convention & Trade Center.

The annual meeting brings together members of the local state legislative delegation, Columbus Council, government officials, and community partners to discuss legislative priorities and issues affecting Columbus-Muscogee County.

Hometown Connection provides an opportunity for local and state leaders to exchange information and strengthen partnerships that support service delivery and address the community's long-term needs.
